

Sunday School Texts, May 10

Luke 24 ¹³ Now behold, two of them were traveling that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was sixteen stadia from Jerusalem. ¹⁴ And they talked together (ὠμίλουν) of all these things which had happened. ¹⁵ It so happened, while they conversed (ὠμιλεῖν) and pondered (συζητεῖν), that Jesus Himself drew near and accompanied them. ¹⁶ But their eyes were restrained, so that they did not know Him. ¹⁷ And He said to them, "What sort of words are these that you have with one another while you walk (περιπατοῦντες) and are sad?" ¹⁸ Then the one whose name was Cleopas answered and said to Him, "Are You the only stranger in Jerusalem, and have You not known the things which happened there in these days?" ¹⁹ And He said to them, "What things?" So they said to Him, "The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a Prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰ and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death and crucified him. ²¹ But we were hoping that it was He who was going to redeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened. ²² Yes, and certain women of our company, who arrived at the tomb early, astonished us. ²³ When they did not find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said He was alive. ²⁴ And certain of those with us went to the tomb and it just as the women had said; but Him they did not see." ²⁵ Then He said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶ Ought not the Messiah to have suffered these things and to enter into His glory?" ²⁷ And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He interpreted (διερμήνευσεν) to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself. ²⁸ Then they drew near to the village where they were going, and He acted as though He would go farther. ²⁹ But they constrained Him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent." And He went in to stay with them. ³⁰ Now it came to pass, as He sat at the table with them, that

He took bread,

blessed, and broke it and gave it to them.

Luke 9 ¹⁶ Then
He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven,
He blessed, and
broke them, and gave them
to the disciples to set before the multitude.

Luke 22 ¹⁹ And He took bread,

gave thanks, and
broke it, and gave it
to them

³¹ Then their eyes were opened, and they knew Him; and He vanished from their sight. ³² And they said to one another, "Did not our heart burn within us while He talked with us on the road, and while He opened the Scriptures to us?" ³³ So they rose up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven and those with them; ³⁴ these declared, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" ³⁵ And they told about (ἐξηγούντο) the things that happened on the road, and how He was made known to them in the breaking of bread (ἐν τῇ κλάσει τοῦ ἄρτου).

Luke 9 ²⁸ Now it came to pass, about eight days after these words, that He took Peter, John, and James and went up on the mountain to pray. ²⁹ As He prayed, the appearance of His face was altered, and His robe glistened white. ³⁰ And behold, two men were conversing with Him; these were Moses and Elijah; ³¹ they, appearing in glory, were talking about His departure (τὴν ἔξοδον αὐτοῦ), which He was about to fulfill (πληροῦν) at Jerusalem.

Luke 4 ¹⁶ So He came to Nazareth, where He had been raised. And as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. ¹⁷ And He was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was written:

¹⁸ "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, Because He has anointed Me
To preach the gospel to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives
And recovery of sight to the blind,
To set at liberty those who are oppressed;
¹⁹ To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

²⁰ Then He closed the book and returned it to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him. ²¹ And He began to say to them, "Today this Scripture is fulfilled (πεπλήρωται) in your hearing."

Luke 24 ⁴⁴ Then He said to them, "These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me." ⁴⁵ And He opened their understanding, that they might comprehend the Scriptures. ⁴⁶ Then He said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, ⁴⁷ and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ And you are witnesses of these things.
